"ALICE THE LUMBER JACK"

Produced by Winkler Pictures Inc.

Distributed by F.B.O.

Julius and a mouse, lumber-jacks are on logs floating on rapids. They come to the waterfall and just as the log is about to go over the rapids, Julius makes an umbrella out of the mouse and they soar into the air.

Julius upon landing on earth sits on a saw and is severed in half. The lower portion of his body runs away and after several amusing incidents finally makes himself whole again. He gets on his sleigh and drives to the woods where he taps the trees by drilling holes with his tail for sap. The villainous bear, sees him do this and when Julius drills another tree with his tail, it comes through to the back. The Villain makes a knot in Julius's tail and he is tied to the tree.

Alice sees this and scolds the Bear. He grabs her and runs away. Julius finally succeeds in freeing himself and pursues them. After an extremely exciting chase Julius rescues Alice from her abductor.
